Simonsen, Lavoie, Smallwood, Troup, Svensson Earn Top Seeds for PBA Players Championship Regional Finals

PBA SW Region Qualifiers L to R: Francois Lavoie, Packy Hanrahan, Keven Williams, Benjamin Martinez and AJ Chapman

By: Jef Goodger

New York, NY—Established PBA stars Anthony Simonsen (West Region), François Lavoie (Southwest), Tom Smallwood (Central), Kyle Troup (East) and Jesper Svensson (South) claimed the top seeds for their respective PBA Players Championship regional stepladder finals. After 28 games of qualifying, eleven non-champions inserted themselves into four of the five regions.

Simonsen, the winner of the 2019 PBA Players Championship, led the West Region by 103 pins over second seed Wesley Low Jr., with Jakob Butturff, Darren Tang and Kris Koeltzow rounding out the top five. Koeltzow held on to the fifth spot by 11 pins after fending off late charges by PJ Haggerty and Sam Cooley in the final game of qualifying.

The only PBA Tour champion in the Southwest Regional Finals is top seed Lavoie, a four-time champion who built a 104-pin lead over second place. Lavoie will be challenged by Packy Hanrahan, Keven Williams, Benjamin Martinez and AJ Chapman.

Smallwood, who won the 2018 PBA Players Championship, rolled a 300 game on his way to leading the Central Region, followed by 2018 PBA Player of the Year Andrew Anderson, four-time champion Ronnie Russell (who rolled two

PWBA Tour to Begin 2021 Season with Kickoff Classic Series at ITRC

By: Aaron Smith

ARLINGTON, Texas - The Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour will make its return to the lanes this week at the International Training and Research Center as the 2021 season gets underway with the start of the PWBA Kickoff Classic Series.

The Kickoff Classic Series, which features three national tour stops and one regional event, will run from Jan. 20-26. It will mark the first national PWBA competition since September 2019. The 2020 season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The upcoming event will be broadcast live on BowlTV.com, with qualifying and match-play rounds available for free with the creation of a login for the livestreaming platform. The stepladder finals of each of the four events will require a subscription to watch live.

The national tournaments on the schedule for the Kickoff Classic Series include the PWBA Bowlers Journal Classic (Jan. 20-21), PWBA ITRC Classic (Jan. 22-23) and PWBA Hall

Coffee Makes Everything Better

Every week Charles M. Schulz would provide a newsletter to the children in the L & L Lanes Junior Bowling League. This cover appeared in a 1962 edition of "Ten Pin Tales," and as Bob Johnson wrote in his April 2002 article for Bowlers Journal Magazine, it included a rarity for a Schulz cartoon... an adult!

My earliest recollection of coffee was the smell whenever my parents would brew a pot of coffee. Although I enjoyed that smell, my first real introduction to the drinking of coffee was during the years that I spent in college, when just one small cup of joe would keep me up all night while cramming for finals.

After that initial introduction to just one benefit of coffee addiction, I really never got the daily habit until joining the corporate offices of AMF in Westbury, New York. It was hard to avoid, as every couple of hours an attendant with a coffee cart would come around the aisle near my office and ring a bell. The cart contained three of the Schulz children participated, I never saw any of Schulz famous friends that reportedly frequented his four hole golf course at the Coffee Grounds. But the pool party and bowling trophy presentation event each year is something that is indelibly etched in my mind.

In the Bowling Industry Magazine article, I highlighted the profitable benefits of flavored gourmet coffee, and for those who dare, the additional benefits of espresso drinks. One quote that editor Bob Johnson called attention to in the feature was the following: "Instead of charging 50 cents for a cup of coffee with free refills, we can now charge more for coffee worth buying."

It's interesting that while I don't really agree with much of the political or cultural beliefs espoused in the state of New Jersey, I have comfortably enjoyed the past 28 years in Edison, N.J., a city of more than 100,000 that is spread across a large swath of land containing many local and regional malls. Within the city limits of Edison there's another community that's completely surrounded by Edison that I call home - Metuchen.

Metuchen is highly remi-niscant of Sebastopol, with a population of around 15,000 citizens, and more than 20 coffee houses in less than 3 square miles. My favorite shop, aside from three Starbucks, is Brewed Awakening, which has morphed into a breakfast and lunch shop over the years, but still sells a mean cup of coffee. Some of the other local coffee houses that stand out are as follows:

- Cafe Paris
- The Coffee House Cafe
- Joe Coffee
- Hatch 44
- CLO Coffee Company
- Cai's Coffee House
- Bagel Pantry
- Cafe Amore
- Cafe Zio
- Athena Greek Coffee
- 2 Chicks With

Chocolate

Did I mention that Metuchen only has a population of 14,748? And this list does not include corporate coffee shops like Starbucks (3), Dunkin' Donuts (3), Nordstrom Espresso Bar, Whole Foods Coffee Bar, Panera Bread, Biggby Coffee and Manhattan Bagel. In terms of coffee, my beliefs are completely in touch with New Jersey!

So raise a cup of coffee America, and make everything better! Times are exceptionally difficult, but there's really no other place on earth to escape than to particular enclaves within the USA. Florida, Texas 300 games during qualifying), 10-time winner Wes Malott and Zach Weidman, who is making his televised finals debut. Weidman bowled 258 in his final game to take the fifth spot away from EJ Tackett, who missed the top five by 17 pins.

Bookending the East Region are six-time champion Troup on the top of the stepladder and Bill O'Neill, the defending champion, in fifth. O'Neill jumped into the top five in the 28th and final game, edging Tim Foy Jr. by 11 pins. Seeded second through fourth, respectively, are Brandon Novak, Michael Davidson and Chris Via, all of whom are looking for their first PBA Tour titles.

The South Region is the only one in which all five spots are held by PBA Tour champions. Svensson qualified 10 pins ahead of #2 seed Cristian Azcona after the two jockeyed for position all day. 2015 U.S. Open champion Ryan Ciminelli, who retired from full-time competition in 2020, earned the third spot, followed by two-time champion Tom Daugherty and seven-time winner Dick Allen.

The Regional Finals begin airing live on Fox Sports' FS1 Sunday, Jan. 24, with the West Region. The winners of each Regional Final advance to the PBA Players Championship Finals, live on FOX Broadcast Channel Feb. 21, featuring a top prize of $250,000.

The Kickoff Classic Series will be following a strict set of procedures and protocols for athlete and staff safety during the event. For more information on the procedures and protocols, click here.

The field will include 13 PWBA Tour champions and competitors from 10 countries (Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Latvia, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Russia, South Africa, Ukraine and United States).

Shannon O'Keefe of Shiloh, Illinois, the two-time reigning PWBA Player of the Year, will look to return to her winning ways after putting together a legendary season in 2019.

The 41-year-old right-hander became the first player since 2001 to collect five wins in a season, and she won her third career major championship at the season-ending PWBA Tour Championship.

nearly 500 days, so I'm excited to be able to compete against the best," said O'Keefe, a 13-time PWBA Tour titlist. "I've spent most of my time bowling over the past year and a half with my college kids (at McKendree University) or by myself, so it will probably be weird to see all these ladies. At the end of the day, I'm a competitor, and I've missed doing what I love. I feel blessed for the extra time I've had at home to really work hard physically, mentally and on my fitness level, and I feel equally blessed to now have the opportunity to finally compete again."

The same format will be used for the Bowlers Journal Classic and ITRC Classic. Competitors will bowl nine games of qualifying, before the top 12 players advance to round-robin match play. After 12 games of match play, the top four bowlers will advance to the stepladder finals, based on total pinfall and bonus pins for

*At Ennis All Star BowlLawrence topples 693, Hopkins snags 606

Ennis Mixed Classic league member Rick Lawrence racked up a hard-hitting 213-246-234 = 693 series to earn top billing on the honor roll last week at Ennis All Star Bowl.

April Hopkins led the lady bowlers with a highly commendable 166-216-224 = 606 Pairs & Spares set.

The Hall of Fame Classic will feature the top 24 players from the Bowlers Journal Classic and ITRC Classic, based on their 18-game qualifying totals. Total pinfall will drop at the start of the Hall of Fame Classic, and the 24 advancers will bowl 24 games of round-robin match play to determine the five bowlers for the stepladder finals, based on total pinfall and bonus pins.
