He went undefeated in match play, including shooting back-to-back 300 games to claim the $1,000 first place prize.

This was John's 5th SASBA title!

ARLINGTON, TX - The Corning CC women and Hudson Valley CC men recorded victories last weekend at the Hawk Invitational in Rome, New York.

The one-day event was held Sunday at Kingpin Lanes, bringing together four women's and five men's National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) programs for competition. Teams competed in six traditional games and five Baker games, with total pinfall determining the winner in each division.

In the women's division, Corning CC posted a wire-to-wire victory, finishing the event with a 5,554 pinfall total. Mohawk Valley CC was second with 5,475, while Herkimer County CC was third with 4,877.

Individually, Hudson Valley's Jordan Thomas easily claimed the top spot, posting a six-game block of 1,166 (194.33 average). She was followed in the standings by Corning's Rachele Williams (1,068), Mohawk Valley's Savannah Burgess (1,044), Hudson Valley's Haley Salvagione (1,025) and Corning's Zezra Reynolds (999).

On the men's side, Hudson Valley CC was in third place after three traditional games but rolled scores of 1,090 and 1,046 in Games 4 and 5 to pull away from the field, finishing at the top of the leaderboard with a 6,696 total. Herkimer County CC finished second with 6,379, and Mohawk Valley CC took third with 6,305.

In the men's individual standings, Mohawk Valley's Nick Gentile edged Herkimer County's Tim Cloonan by a single pin for the top spot,

Defending Champ Norm Duke Out as PBA Stars Return to Jonesboro

By: Bill Vint

JONESBORO, Ark. (Jan. 25, 2020) – An all-star field of 60 Professional Bowlers Association players from around the world will head back to Hijinx Jan. 27-Feb. 1 for the third event on the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour schedule. Unfortunately, defending champion Norm Duke won't be among them.

The finals of the 2020 event will be televised live on FOX Sports' FS1 channel on Saturday, Feb. 1, at 3:30 p.m. CST (4:30 p.m. EST).

In 2019, Duke, a PBA Hall of Famer from Clermont, Florida, became the third bowler in PBA history to win 40 titles when he defeated then 22-year-old Anthony Simonsen of Little

Norm Duke

Elm, Texas, 212-171, to win the Jonesboro Open. But Duke sustained an upper left injury during last week's PBA Hall of Fame Classic, forcing him to withdraw despite being in contention for a berth in the

There were two majors Tommy Jones had won in impressive fashion, but for this PBA Hall of Famer, there really wasn't one signature moment, that one thing on national television, the one thing he would be associated with for the rest of his life and beyond. Well, he took care of that in very impressive fashion within 24 hours of being inducted. On two different lane patterns going through very unique transitions, Jones wrote the Hollywood ending to his PBA Hall of Fame induction weekend. With his mother, daughter and girlfriend watching him live at a television final for the first time, Jones threw one of the best tenth frames of a TV 300 or any 300 you will ever see. Here are the stats from Fox StrikeTrack on those three shots I should have included in last week's summary, but impressive nonetheless. Ball Speed was 18.1, 17.8, 17.7 mph at the arrows, rev rate - 468, 468, 467, arrows location -- 6.5, 7.6, 6.4, and breakpoint location - 12.4, 12.6, 12.0. Can't blame him for the 11th strike, a little left at the arrows, but the rest of it? That is what a Hall of Fame performance looks like. You may see this tenth frame used by instructors from this point going forward as an example what can be done under pressure. ##### Last week, Upper Iowa University Head Bowling Coach Dr. Nichole DePaul explained part of the journey of starting a men's club team and NCAA women's team from scratch. In this week's installment, Coach DePaul talks about the getting students to meet grade requirements, road trips, and parental involvement at the Division 2 school in Fayette, Iowa. JPA: Describe the experience getting a team filled with freshmen to the first road trip involving airports. Coach DePaul: With help from the parents getting the girls to the airport and the coordination from the university, we caught the connecting flight in Chicago to head to Houston, I reminded the ladies to do their job, which was to stay focused. They went into the first day defeating Tulane and Youngstown State. It really ignited their fire seeing all these big schools knowing they could compete against them, so the need to stay focused and pay attention paid off. They handled it beautifully. I think I was more nervous than they were since I knew all the coaches and helped (Sam Houston State Head Coach) Brad Hagen run the tournament the previous couple of years. Lo and behold, the girls on the team were keeping me calm. JPA: What have been some of the hurdles that have popped up needing to be addressed? Coach DePaul: With a first-year program with mostly freshmen and one upper classman on each team, getting them to understand responsibility in terms of going to class, going to workouts, emphasizing education is important. Being a former high school teacher, I'm thinking they've gone through high school, and they would understand the responsibilities. They are now adults, getting them to prioritize those tasks, then bowling second, but they thought bowling would be first and classes second, so as an educator that's been a challenge. Running two teams has also been a challenge. The holiday break will be my first time off since the men's team practices started in August. Having to travel every weekend, organizing both teams travel, equipment, drilling, the plan is to get me another assistant coach for next year to have two people to work with me. JPA: Have the parents being asking you why their child is or isn't bowling more? Coach DePaul: I'm not going to name names, but it has happened. I am of the mindset to have the conversation with the athlete on my

PBA Announces 2020 FloBowling Summer Tour, USBC Cup Schedule

BY: Bill Vint

ARLINGTON, Texas (Jan. 24, 2020) – The Professional Bowlers Association today announced a seven-tournament PBA FloBowling Summer Tour tournament series that will include USBC Cup bonus incentives and berths to participate in the 2020 PBA China Tiger Cup.

The summer series, which will be covered exclusively from start to finish by the PBA's online livestreaming partner, FloBowling, begins June 26-28 in Lubbock, Texas, and concludes Aug. 28-30 in Chesapeake, Virginia. In between the series will visit Lakewood, Colorado; Houston, Texas; Coldwater, Ohio; Middletown, Delaware, and Wilmington, North Carolina, expanding the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour from 13 to 20 events.

All seven tournaments will award competition points toward the USBC Cup, sponsored by the United States Bowling Congress, which will award a total of $40,000 in bonus prize money for the top five players based upon how they perform across the tournament series. The top eight players in Summer Tour points also will qualify for the end-of-season PBA China Tiger Cup.

In 2019, Sean Rash of Montgomery, Illinois, took advantage of the summer series by winning the USBC Cup points title and he converted his berth in the PBA China Tiger Cup into another big win.

Six of the seven 2020 events were part of the inaugural FloBowling Summer Tour and USBC Cup program in 2019, when FloBowling introduced multi-lane coverage of all rounds of each tournament, allowing PBA fans to follow their favorite players throughout the competition. The new stop is the Lakewood Open in Colorado.

Last year's tournament winners included Jakob Butturff, Lubbock; Kyle Sherman (with Amanda Greene), PBA-PWBA Mixed Doubles; Tommy Jones, Clearwater; Ryan Ciminelli, Middletown; BJ Moore, Wilmington; Bill O'Neill, Chesapeake, and Rash as both the USBC Cup and PBA China Tiger Cup champ.

FloBowling is a subscription-based online streaming service operated by Austin, Texas-based FloSports. For subscription information, schedules and the numerous other benefits available as part of a FloBowling subscription, visit flobowling.com.

I'm utilizing this person rather than someone who out averaged the field the week before. The upcoming tournament may not be strong for them.

JPA: What skill set from the high school teacher years have you brought to your position as head of the bowling program?

Coach DePaul: By far, organizational skills. When you're teaching six class periods a day, then move to planning out a workouts, practices, and method of travel, there's not much difference.

Another skill has been applying mental game skills both on and off the lanes. One student talked to me about testing anxiety. I gave an example of a coping skill to use on a semester exam at the college level as well as use it on the lanes. That what my boss talks to me about how nice to have me here with the educator and PWBA Tour background to get the students to see what it's really about instead of sugar coating a lot of it. You're straight forward telling them like it is and they need to hear that from someone like you.

Thanks to Coach DePaul for her thoughts and hope to have another interview after the inaugural season of the Upper Iowa University bowling program.

TOMMY JONES' PBA HALL OF FAME CLASSIC 300 GAME: ONE OF A KIND

Fourteen hours after his induction into the PBA Hall of Fame in Arlington, Texas, Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., rolled the 27th nationally-televised perfect game in PBA history in the title match of the PBA Hall of Fame Classic at the International Training and Research Center, a part of the International Bowling Campus, on Sunday.

It was a one-of-a-kind nationally televised 300 game on a number of levels:

- It was Jones' first 300 on TV.
- It was the first televised 300 under the PBA's television partnership with FOX.
- It was the first bowled on TV on a dual lane condition (Dick Weber 45 pattern on the left lane, Mike Aulby 39 pattern on the right lane).
- It was the first bowled in the title match of a season-opening telecast (Jim Stefanich bowled a 300 in the second match of the 1974 Midas Open, the first ABC-TV telecast of 1974).
- It was the first in the title match by a player who was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame the same week.
- It was the first in a tele-vised title match in 27 years. Mike Aulby (who was on hand to watch Jones bowl his 300 in Arlington) defeated David Ozio, 300-279, to win the 1993 Wichita Open. The first 300 bowled in a title match was by Bob Benoit in the 1988 Quaker State Open.

Jones' perfect game also triggered the 2020 version of the "Go Bowling Free America" offer, whereby PBA fans can register to receive a free game of bowling coupon if a PBA bowler bowls a 300 game on any televised event on Fox or FS1 during the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour Schedule. TOMMY JONES TAKES EARLY 2020 PBA PLAYOFFS POINTS LEAD

With his victory in the PBA Hall of Fame Classic, the first tournament of the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour season, Tommy Jones took the early lead in the competition points race that will eventually determine the 24 players who will qualify to compete for the second annual PBA Playoffs title in April and May. Points are awarded to all players in each PBA Tour tournament according to how the event is ranked in a three-tier points structure. The PBA Hall of Fame Classic was a Tier 1 tournament, where first place was worth 2,500 points with each additional place awarded points in a declining manner. ## TOM CLARK, TIM MACK TO RECEIVE BPAA AWARDS

PBA Commissioner Tom Clark and PBA League manager Tim Mack have been selected as 2020 Bowling Industry Service Award recipients by the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America. Award winners will be honored on July 4 during 2020 International Bowl at the Gaylord Rockies Resort and Convention Center in Denver, Colo.

Clark will receive the 2020 Media Award. As PBA Commissioner, he has developed media products such as PBA's Xtra Frame livestreaming service, but most significantly in 2019 secured the PBA on FOX Sports television deal, resulting in an 85 percent increase in television viewership its first year.

Mack will be recognized with the Dick Weber Bowling Ambassador Award, named after the legendary bowling icon, recognizing his many contributions to the game and sport of bowling, both on and off the lanes. After years of bowling internationally, Mack became a player services representative and international ambassador for Storm Products and has served as a PBA League team manager since the program's inception in 2013.

for back-to-back near-perfect games. The 37-year-old right-hander flirted with the gutter on the shorter oiling pattern on the right lane and played a near-flawless inside line on the left throughout the finals.

"A couple of times on that right lane, I said things to myself that I couldn't repeat on television," Rash said, "but I was able to execute and carry the strikes. You can't worry about the ball going in the gutter. You live and die with it. Trust the process and let things happen. I'm going to keep living on the edge."

"Physically I feel great. I saw the lanes perfectly all week. I kept my angles in front of me. It was a hell of a show," he continued. "It's another step in the milestone."

"I love Shawnee," he added of his history of successful appearances at FireLake. "Chris Skillings (FireLake's Director of Bowling Operations) asked me to move to Shawnee, but that isn't going to happen."

Rash, who was joined by wife Sara in the closing ceremonies, also revealed the couple is expecting their third child in July.

"We were trying to figure out a good time to announce it," Rash said. "This seemed like as good a time as any."

The championship round, like the rest of the tournament, was contested on a demanding dual pattern scoring environment with the PBA's shortest and second-longest oiling patterns applied to opposing lanes: the 45-foot PBA Dragon pattern on the left lane and the 32-foot Wolf on the right.

In the opening match of Sunday's finals, Patrick Hanrahan of Wichita, Kansas, a two-handed lefthander who was making his PBA television debut, left the 2-4-6-10 split in the third frame and failed to convert. He then missed a 6 pin in the fourth frame, helping Rash to an early 33-pin lead that he never relinquished in posting a 226-202 victory.

In match two, Rash left the 3-4-6-7 in his opening frame and missed. Sweden's Jesper Svensson, also a two-handed lefthander, took advantage, starting with three strikes for an early 32-pin lead. After back-to-back single-pin spares and a four-strike rally by Rash, Svensson threw three more strikes before leaving the 2-4-6-7 and failing to convert in the ninth frame. That opening allowed Rash to lock up the match with three strikes and a nine-count, 235-220.

The semifinal match began as a spare-shooting contest before Rash struck first in the third frame. He then ran off a string of 10 strikes for an easy 279-189 victory. No. 2 qualifier Brad Miller of Lee's Summit,

CARMEN SALVINO TO IMPROVE HIS "OLDEST PBA TOUR COMPETITOR" RECORD

PBA legend Carmen Salvino plans to make it an even 30 when the 86-year-old PBA Hall of Famer rolls his first ball in the 2020 PBA Tournament of Champions Feb. 3-9 at AMF Riviera Lanes in Fairlawn, Ohio, extending his record as the oldest player to compete in a Go Bowling PBA Tour event.

While he doesn't plan on officially retiring from the sport, he does plan to make it his final appearance in PBA's signature event that requires a player to have won a PBA title to be eligible to compete.

"I'm working out and getting a lot of practice in, but I'll admit I'm a little sore," the Chicago native said. "That just means I've got more muscles than I realized."

"Last year I had the honor of presenting Jason Belmonte with the TOC trophy for his record-tying 10th major win, but this year I'll look forward to him giving it to me."

Salvino has bowled in 733 PBA Tour events since competing in the first PBA tournament ever held – the 1959 Empire

State Open at Schade's Academy in Albany, N.Y. He is a member of numerous Halls of Fame including the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame headquartered in the Chicago area and was ranked 17th on PBA's 2009 list of 50 greatest players in PBA history.

PBA's most famous showman is one of the few remaining links to the storied tournament's origin dating back to the inaugural event in 1962. The 1962 TOC was held at Play Bowl in Indianapolis and was actually billed as the Indianapolis 500 Festival Tournament of Champions, according to the Indianapolis Star's coverage of the tournament. It's an often-overlooked event because the tournament would not be held again for three years. In 1965, when Firestone began its landmark sponsorship, the classic moved to Bowlarama in Akron and then to AMF Riviera Lanes the following year where it remained for 29 years.

The first TOC was a two-day event featuring 25 PBA Tour champions: everyone who had won a title since the PBA's formation four years earlier. It was conducted immediately after the Indianapolis PBA Open, the final regular event of the 1965 Tour season, which also was held at Play Bowl. Salvino

Brunswick Signs Multi-Year Agreement with PBA

Brunswick Bowling Products has announced it has signed a three-year, multimillion-dollar sponsorship and product registration agreement with the PBA, assuring products for all brands will be represented on the Go Bowling PBA Tour: Brunswick, Columbia 300, DV8, Ebonite, Hammer, Radical, and Track ball brands; Brunswick and Hammer bowling shoes and all of the accessories for Ultimate Bowling Products and Powerhouse brands.

"The PBA sponsorship was one of our top priorities as a follow up to the recent Ebonite acquisition. This multi-year agreement with the PBA confirms our commitment to all of our consumer brands and to growing the sport of bowling," said Corey Dykstra, Brunswick Bowling Products CEO.

The agreement also solidified Brunswick as the "Exclusive Official Capital Equipment and Lane Maintenance Supplier" to the PBA through 2022. As such, the PBA will use Brunswick MAX® lane machines, cleaners, conditioners and cloth exclusively on the PBA Tour and the PBA50 Tour. In addition, Brunswick will also furnish the bowling equipment for PBA arena events conducted during the next three seasons, including pinsetters, ball returns, Sync® scoring systems, and Pro Lane™ synthetic lanes. Brunswick will supply MAX® crown bowling pins to be used during televised PBA Tour competitions and will be named as the preferred bowling ball brand at PBA Tour pro-am events.

PBA CEO Colie Edison commented, "We are very excited to continue the long-standing partnership between Brunswick and the PBA. This relationship has been productive for more than 60 years, and we appreciate Brunswick's tradition of supporting competitive bowling and look forward to continuing to deliver outstanding value to their brands."

"Brunswick Bowling Products was born out of a love for the sport and nearly 130 years later that passion is still at the heart of everything we do," Dykstra added. "We are thrilled that the best bowlers in the world will continue to compete using the best bowling equipment."

The Oklahoma Open was a Tier 2 event in the PBA's competition points structure, with 5,000 points awarded to the winner and diminishing points to the rest of the field. Points earned in all Go Bowling PBA Tour events through the PBA World Series of Bowling XI in April will determine the 24 players who will earn berths in the PBA Playoffs in April and May.

The next stop on the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour is the PBA Jonesboro Open at Hijinx in Jonesboro, Arkansas, beginning with a pre-tournament qualifier on Tuesday. The Jonesboro finals will air live on FS1 Saturday at 4:30 p.m. EST. All preliminary rounds will be livestreamed by FloBowling.com beginning Wednesday.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: RON PROFITT WINS SOUTH REGION SEASON OPENER

Ron Profitt of Brookville, Ohio, defeated Chris Johnson of Nashville, N.C., 269-209, to win the inaugural PBA50 Richie's Automotive Wilson South Open at Westview Lanes in Wilson, N.C., Sunday, kicking off the 2020 PBA South Region season.

Profitt, who won $2,000 along with his fifth career regional title, never trailed after starting the title match with a spare followed by eight consecutive strikes. Johnson, who earned $1,000, started the title match with a spare but then opened and could never catch up.

Profitt made it interesting in the semifinal round against Chris Collins of Myrtle Beach, S.C. when he left a 7-10 split in the 10th to force a roll-off, but he prevailed, 29-28 to advance to the championship match. In the other semifinal round, Johnson defeated No. 1 qualifier Joe Scarborough of Charlotte, N.C., 231-223.

stepladder finals. He is still rehabbing that injury in hopes of being able to compete in the string of three PBA major championships that will take place following Jonesboro.

With or without Duke, competition in Jonesboro will be an intense test for the field of 60. The 2019 tournament was contested on what the PBA calls a "dual pattern" lane conditioning challenge where the PBA's 36-foot Viper and the 48-foot Shark lane oiling patterns were applied to the left and right right lanes, respectively, requiring players to deal with lane conditions on each lane that were dramatically different. The 2020 field will face the same type of scoring challenge.

The Jonesboro tournament is another important leg on the road to the second annual PBA Playoffs. The third tournament of the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour season will award points as a Tier 2 tournament in the PBA competition points system that will help determine the 24 players who will compete for a $100,000 first prize in the Playoffs in April and May.

The Jonesboro Open gets underway on Monday, Jan. 27, when a group of more than 30 players will bowl two five-game rounds in a pre-tournament qualifier (PTQ) to try to qualify for eight berths in the tournament proper. Tuesday is reserved for an official practice session. The full field will then bowl two seven-game qualifying rounds on Wednesday.

The top 16 after 14 games will advance to match play where they will bowl 16 head-to-head matches on the "mixed" Viper/Shark conditions on Thursday.

PBA players will participate in a pair of pro-am squads with Jonesboro area grassroots men, women, senior and youth bowlers on Friday before the top five qualifiers based on 30-game pinfall totals will bowl for the title in the live nationally televised on FS1 at 3:30 p.m. CST on Saturday.

All 30 games of qualifying and match play will be live streamed by PBA's online streaming partner, FloBowling. For FloBowling subscription information, visit FloBowling.com. FloBowling also will livestream Saturday's finals live to its international subscribers.

The tournament promises another classic battle between established stars and young players who are trying for their first title or to build Rookie of the Year resumes. Among the players entered are PBA Hall of Famers Chris Barnes, Tommy Jones and Walter Ray Williams Jr.; reigning PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte and 2019 Rookie of the Year Mykel Holli-man, and international players from Australia, England, Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Canada, Ireland and England.
